On October 16, 2014, at approximately 12:15 AM, United States Border Patrol (USBP) Agents were conducting line watch duties in the area of Abram, Texas along the Rio Grande. The agents observed "foot sign" on along the river's edge and followed it for about a quarter mile where it came to an end. As the agents continued into the brush they encountered two male subjects, later determined to be Roy Gabriel RODRIGUEZ-Cruz and Jose Enrique MENDEZ-Torres, standing next to several bundles (later determined to be marijuana). When the agents made contact with the two, one of the individuals fled the area but was soon apprehended by agents. A closer inspection of the area by the agents led to the discovery of 14 bundles of marijuana totaling 69.5 kgs.

Once at the station, defendants Roy Gabriel RODRIGUEZ-Cruz and Jose Enrique MENDEZ-Torres were advised of their Miranda Warnings. Both subjects waived their rights and admitted to smuggling the marijuana and that they were to have been paid $200 for their participation.
